Theta Chapter Alumni Personality Profile

by Tom Tatham

Lee Szambecki '98

The Early Years

Lee was born in Kent, Ohio to parents Tony & Diana. Tony is an owner operator of a restaurant franchise throughout Ohio, and Diana was a stay at home mother who now spends much of her time on philanthropic pursuits when not in Florida at their winter home.

Lee grew up in Kent with his brother and sister, but they spent summers in a small sailing town of Vermilion, on the south shore of Lake Erie. As the son of a sailor, Lee was sailing while still in diapers, spending his summers on the lake, which further encouraged his love for the water. Sailing became a competitive pursuit through high school and helped lead Lee to his choice of Ohio Wesleyan.

Ohio Wesleyan

After graduating from Walsh Jesuit High School in Stow, Ohio, in 1994, Lee was considering an interesting mix of universities. He wanted a school within a few hours of home, good academic reputation, and not too close to his parents to worry about any "surprise visits". He was also looking for a school that offered a Collegiate Sailing Program, which coupled with acceptance, were his main criteria. Ohio Wesleyan, at the time, was the only school in Ohio with a Varsity Sailing program. All other schools only had club teams. The next thing Lee knew he was starting classes in the fall of 1994 at OWU.

Freshman year found Lee rooming with Aaron Seil '98, a fellow Beta pledge in Smith Hall. They were friends growing up in Vermilion, where their parents were summer neighbors, and who learned over the summer of 1994 that both planned to attend Ohio Wesleyan. Lee is still very good friends with Aaron Seil, who is now a financial planner in Stow Ohio, where he lives with his lovely wife Kristen.

Those first few months were a little bit of a blur, between the academics, sailing schedule, and the social evenings around campus. Lee majored in Economics Management, with a minor in Accounting. He also continued to sail all four years at Ohio Wesleyan, lettering every year and acting as Team Captain for three years.

Pledging Beta

Lee attributes his bid to Beta really to his close friendship with Aaron Seil. Aaron was able to help highlight some of Lee's good qualities to the older brothers while playing down his self described "abrasive side". The laid back nature and eclectic style of the active brothers at the house appealed to Lee, and the next thing he knew he was standing next to a pledge class of 12 (School President Tom Courtrice was an honorary 13th member of his class, although according to Lee he missed most of the pledge events).

Some of Lee's fondest memories of the house are having 10 to 15 brothers join the sailing course, for which Lee was responsible for assigning grades. Intramurals, floor wars at 9 Williams Drive, "Now" events down by the stream, and so many other fond memories, all involving Theta Beta's in some way.

One other fond memory was around spring break sophomore year while in Mexico with brothers Levi Levingston '97, Jason Weinstein '97, and Ben Harrison '98. Lee's parents had purchased a vacation home on Captiva Island, Florida and the next year it became a spring break destination for about 20 brothers and pledges.

Theta Chapter House Corps Commits Historical Pins to Hq Archives For Permanent Display

In the 2007 issue of Theta Data, among the articles on the history of the Beta Pin, you may recall that three of our generous alumni committed family or friend's pins to the permanent care of the House Corps. In turn, the donors all agreed to have those beautiful pins to be placed on permanent display in the National Administrative Museum in Oxford, Ohio.

As a result, these pins were placed in the trust of the HQ Archivist, Eric Eickhoff (OWU '00), who has placed them on display as pictured below:

As displayed below, the three pins and their donors are:

1. The Lorenzo Dow McCabe Pin

Gift of Annie Grinton Kisseberth's (Kappa Alpha Theta '54) family [Paul Kisseberth '54].

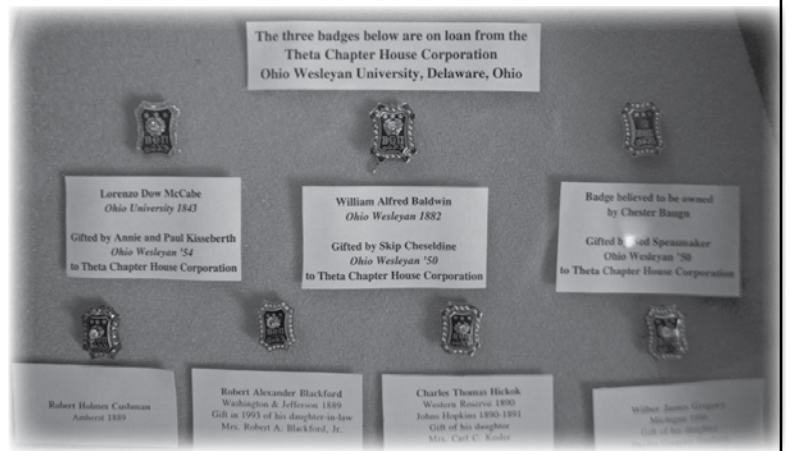

2. The William Alfred Baldwin Pin

This pin passed through the temporary keeping of Morris Hollenbaugh '49, "Skip" Cheseldine '48 and Thomas Farahay '48 and was generously given to the House Corps in 2006 and thereafter to the Oxford Offices.

3. The Pin Believed to Belong to Chester Baugn

This pin was sent from brother Ned Speasmaker '50 to brother "Skip" Cheseldine and in turn to the editor for safekeeping and an appropriate resting place.

NOTE: See Theta Data issue January 2007 at our website, thetachapterbtp.org for complete information on the history of these and other Beta pins.

Dear Tom, Thanks for your service to Theta Chapter as editor of Theta Data and for being Theta's unofficial resident historian! Question: Will Theta ever return to OWU's campus? (Editor's Answer: To date there have been no significant efforts to re-colonize Theta Chapter. It would require significant alumni leadership supported with many man hours as well as financial support to provide appropriate housing.)

You asked for information concerning "yours truly" so I have included a short summary of the last fifty plus years of my life and career.

I am in good health, having survived prostate cancer and a heart attack a couple of years ago and, for many years, work out regularly in a local gym. Fortunately we have good health care in the Lehigh Valley.

I have fond memories of life at OWU and the years of living at 54 West Lincoln Avenue. I think of the brothers often and mourn those who have died. I remember particularly the great fun we had as I directed Theta's male chorus and also conducting and singing in our barbershop quartet that toured around Ohio performing at various fraternity gatherings.

Yours in -Kai-, Clint Miller

For twenty-seven years he was Organist/Choirmaster of Saint John Lutheran Church in the Civic Center Allentown where in addition to his regular responsibilities, he established a church related concert series which flourished for twenty years performing many of the masterpieces of the sacred choral repertoire and presenting concert organists and other artists of international stature.

For twelve years he served as organist of Temple Beth El in Allentown and in the early 1990s served a one year appointment as Organist/Choirmaster of the Cathedral Church of the Nativity in Bethlehem. University Organist and taught organ at Lehigh University from 1994 until 1998.

His community activities have included serving on the board of Lehigh Valley Arts Council (1980-83), Musical Advisor to the Director of the Allentown Art Museum (1976-83), and member of the Lehigh County Historical Society where he occasionally served as advisor with regard to the restoration of period instruments and volunteer harpsichordist. From 1995 until 2003 he was an on-air programmer and the Classical Music Genre Coordinator, for radio station WDIY, the National Public Radio affiliate in the Lehigh Valley. He is a native of Erie, Pennsylvania.

To Clint from your 1950's Brothers:

"How lucky we were to have you and your talents during our stay at OWU." Thank God you're a Beta.

Then every year since, it continues as a spring break destination for a handful of the Theta Beta's, including Ben, Levi along with Jeff Gallo '96, Ramsy Majoub '98, and Mike Dowgiewicz '98. It was on one of these spring breaks, post undergrad, that Lee met his future wife Kathryn Reilly. They were married in 2006 on Captiva, following Katie's graduation from Miami of Ohio in 2005.

After OWU...Marriage, Family and Career

After graduating from Ohio Wesleyan Lee began working in Cleveland for Charter One Bank, which is now a wholly owned subsidiary of the Royal Bank of Scotland. Lee still works today as VP of Management Information for Business Banking for RBS Citizens, N.A. He also earned a Masters in Business Administration from the Weatherhead School at Case Western Reserve in 2003.

Lee and Katie currently are living in Vermilion with their two children, Liam age 2, and Irene who will be 6 months old in February. Katie and Lee still enjoy getting out on the water or down to Florida with the family, when not busy working or spending time with their family.

"Ginger" & Dick

McClintock '53 February 27, 2010 [Excerpts from email] Hi, Tom!

How are you all doing? Have you had mountains of snow? TV photos look horrible! How glad we are to have moved south! Our daughter and her husband still have more than a foot of snow on their back deck in suburban Richmond, VA. Our three nieces, all in the Raleigh area from Vermont, and similarly happy to have moved south.

I grew up in Arlington, VA, just across the river from D.C., and the photos from there bring back such memories. When we moved there in 1938 - I was 6 - we had a record snowfall our first winter. We four Carter kids thought it was terrific - great sledding, snowman and snow fort building, etc. My parents had grown up in Buffalo, NY, so it didn't bother them a bit, but oh those awful drivers, locals with little or no experience driving on snow or ice. I remember walking down Pennsylvania Ave. and then Constitution to the Capitol, holding hands, six across. Frozen noses, but what fun!

Enough wandering. I saw a wonderful cocktail napkin the last time I played bridge: "It's tough to be nostalgic, when you can't remember anything!" Pure nonsense, but it's good to report that things are looking up after a really tough year. And March is only 2 days away!

Take care, and pass our good wishes along to all. We had a wonderful time at my 55th OWU reunion last May. The ties to that place and the friendships from there never diminish. I was filled with admiration for Pat Simpson and Phyl Thomas, both of whom came for the first time as widows, and had a wonderful time. A few tears, Pat confessed to me privately, but generally the mood for all was very positive and uplifting. Bye for now.

Fondly, Ginger McClintock

Jon Richards '99 Sun, Apr 11, 2010 Hi Tom

Boy, I am late in getting this thanks to you for the nice article that you put in the January Theta Data regarding the get-together of Theta Betas from the 60's for the OWU Sports H of F induction of Jim Ginsburg in October 09! I appreciate your including the write-up...as well as providing all the other interesting info and anecdotes.

In so far as everyone who attended the October get-together in Delaware seemed to still enjoy each other's company, a couple of the brothers who live near to each other in Aiken, S. Carolina offered to organize a follow-up gathering and to try to rope in a few more brothers who didn't make it to the earlier event. So, 7-10 of us (and spouses, partners) are going to get-together at the end of this month for a long weekend at the homes of Geoff Magrath '66 and Rich Amendola '67.

Jim Ginsburg '66..... email from Gins

Dear OWU Old-Timer Lacrosse Players, Beta Theta Pi Alumni, and Other Friends,

I just want to thank each and everyone one of you for coming to some or all of the events at the Fall Homecoming and the Athletic Hall of Fame Ceremonies. From the informal get-together at Hoggy's (aka "The Brown Jug"), to the pre-football game luncheon, to the post-game scrimmage, the induction reception and ceremony, and finally the Saturday evening dinner, it was a great weekend.

I was extremely honored to receive the Hall of Fame induction, especially, knowing that I was the oldest by about 23 years to be honored. Luckily, I could still walk up to the stage! However, by far my greatest honor and memories were seeing all of you and finding out what has been going on with you over the last 40 years. The fact that you came from all over the country - West Coast, East Coast, and everywhere in between was really amazing.

I never expected such a large contingent back at OWU. Our group clearly had the largest cheering section at the induction ceremony! Seriously, I want to thank all of you again for going out of your way to come back to OWU for this event. It really was great to renew so many friendships after all these years.

For those 1966 graduates, remember we'll have our 45th reunion in the spring of 2011. I'm also hopeful that we can arrange another lacrosse reunion. Two years ago, we held this event in the spring, the weekend of the team's last home game.

Finally, I want to give special thanks to several people who without their assertive promotion and organizing efforts, this induction would not have taken place: Pete Lee '65, Geoff Magrath '66 and Jon Richards '66. Also special thanks to Brenda DeWitt, Director of Alumni Relations, who was very helpful in assisting us in contacting lots of alumni players and friends from the '60s.

Thanks again for being there at OWU. I hope we will stay in touch and see each in a shorter time than the next 40 years.

Best to everyone.

Gins

Valuable Paul Nobis '55 Pictures Available 1950's Alumni

For those of us in school in the 50s, we have fond memories of our years at 54 W. Lincoln and on the OWU campus. Fortunately, a great deal of that history was captured on film by Paul Nobis '55. It seems that Paul was always popping up around the corners of the house making sure that the 50s were retained for posterity on film. Recently, Paul's wife, Anne Shirk Nobis '55 (KAT) committed to scanning more than 263 pictures into her computer, burning onto a CD and sending to me. You may view and/or download those pictures from our Web Site at: thetachapterbtp.org. Further, anyone wishing to obtain a CD, please make a contribution to Theta Chapter House Corporation and send request to Tom Tatham, 1994 Suffolk Rd., Apt #1, Columbus, Ohio 43221. Included in these pictures are 5 albums of the following:

1. May 1953 100th Centennial Celebration of Theta Chapter On the OWU campus. 72 photos
2. 54 W. Lincoln Life in 1950s 173 photos
3. Rupe Doan Party 18 photos

Lee keeps in touch with many of his brothers, and he can be reached at 5048 Park Dr, Vermilion, Ohio, or by phone 330-283-6038 and/or e-mail lszambecki@aol.com.

Looking back at his days at Ohio Wesleyan Lee says that he can't imagine those four years without all of the great Beta brothers who made it possible for such a wonderful experience. He holds each and every one of the brothers in high esteem and with fond memories.

Lee has always been a proud and active Beta ... as an undergraduate and now as an alum. We all say to Lee, we are proud to have you as a brother and "thank God you are a Beta".

Jack Hahn '55 (Judy's annual 2010 Christmas letter as edited)

In mid-May, we traveled northeast to enjoy Jack's 55th Alumni Reunion at Ohio Wesleyan University. Granddaughter Natasha (14) traveled with us for exposure to college life and environment. She was able to meet a number of the students, professors, and even the college president. She of course found it much more mature and intriguing than Junior High School and is now convinced that she will attend the university there. As a special addition to the university visit, a small group of us OWU folks traveled to Dayton, Ohio for a few days. Through gracious friends, we were able to meet with a grandniece of the Wright Brothers – and tour their home (on the national register) as well first hand learn about her great uncles. Additionally, we toured their reconstructed workshop, their bicycle shop, and saw one of the original flyers. On the last day there, we did a full tour of the Air Force Museum. We hadn't been there in years and were amazed at the growth – especially in the collection of former Presidential aircraft (now in a special hanger).

(Other Hahn trips with details omitted by the editor included New Mexico, California, Seattle and Vancouver, Canada)

In the late summer we again had our annual Garden Railroad Open House Party. This year we celebrated a quarter of a century of large scale model railroading with the Sulphur Spring and Alum Creek Railway since it's founding in 1985. The endeavor lives on with continued development and new ideas. We are producing another video movie documenting the SAGA from its inception to present. As you can see in the enclosed photo, Jack and Judy are resting after working on the railroad and awaiting a new assignment!

Finally in November, we took our usual extended Thanksgiving break with travels to visit friends Pat and Jerry Shisler (OWU 1955) in Phoenix – and then on to California to be with Jack's sister Carolyn and George.

Our Christmas Holidays this year will be spent here in Albuquerque enjoying the frosty nights with family and friends basking by the pinion wood burning in the fireplace. Jack & Judy
